Local Woman Needs Blood For Operation

Operation to correct a heart condition for Mrs. Doris Crabtree, 25, Canyon resident for the past year, is pending a sufficient supply of blood.

Her physicians in Dallas say date for the operation will be set when a complete list of donors is compiled.

Mrs. Crabtree has damaged heart valves and a heart-lung machine will be used in the operation, according to physicians. At least 15 pints of blood (O-Positive) will be needed with the machine and several donors will have to stand by during the operation. It is estimated that 18 to 24 persons will be needed.

Anyone desiring to give blood to Mrs. Crabtree may do so by writing "Blood Fund, Amarillo Globe-Times, Amarillo, Texas."

Mrs. Crabtree's husband, Lynn, is employed at Canyon Bowl. Their 7-year-old son, Davy Lynn is a first grader at Canyon Elementary School. They reside at 1807 8th Avenue.

Knott, professor of English; David Matthis, associate professor of government; Helen White Moore, associate professor of English; Dr. Jenny Lind Porter, assistant professor of English; Jackie W. Wilson, assistant professor of biology.

Speaker for the breakfast attended by about 100 persons, was Dr. DeWitt Matthews, professor of homiletics at Midwestern Seminary in Kansas City. Theme of the breakfast was "Lord, Send Mine," and the meeting served as a kickoff for the BSU's annual Lottie Moon Christmas offering.

Master of Ceremonies was Robert Clements of Pampa, BSU social chairman. Guests were introduced by Roena King of Spearman, and invocation was given by Patti Fawbush of Amarillo, and benediction was given by Dr. James P. Cornette, WT president.

PROBABLE WEAPON used in a Michigan murder was recovered in Randall County approximately 5 miles north of Umbarger Thursday. Donald Day, right, with the highway department found the gun. Sheriff L. S. "Slim" Johnston is shown holding the 765 mm (.32 caliber) Mauser semi-automatic.

Probable Murder Gun Recovered in County

What is probably the murder weapon used in a Detroit, Michigan killing was recovered in Randall County last week.

Donald Day, working for the highway department, found a 765mm (.32 caliber) Mauser pistol four and three-fourths miles north of Umbarger Thursday. He was surveying at the time.

Day called sheriff L. S. "Slim" Johnston and a check was sent in to the FBI.

Found with the pistol was a clip of ammunition and a shoulder holster.

The gun was allegedly stolen in Canada and used to kill a 24-year-old woman in Detroit November 4. Tucson, Arizona police nabbed a suspect and a Detroit detective flew the suspect back Tuesday.

The suspect told police in Tucson he committed the alleged murder and threw the gun out near Amarillo.

Sheriff Johnston said tests would be complete on the gun within a week.

Mr. Haddock is suffering from a brain concussion, Raymond said.

The accident occurred on Highway 152, one-half mile west of Binger, Oklahoma, according to state troopers there. The Haddocks were traveling east to attend a church meeting in Oklahoma City.

Killed in the collision were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Weber of Clinton, Oklahoma.

Raymond Haddock, stationed in Germany with the Armed Forces, was flown back by the Red Cross. He said he may return to Canyon this week if his parents' condition improves.

Randall Court Hears Amarillo CofC

Members of the Amarillo Chamber of Commerce met with Randall County commissioners Monday afternoon to discuss possible purchase of right-of-way for the Washington Street overpass.

J. M. Simpson, chairman of the highway committee, and Royce Gaut, member of the committee, represented the Amarillo chamber.

Money for construction of the overpass has been set aside by the state and the county must furnish right-of-way. Voters earlier turned down a bond issue to finance the right-of-way.

Simpson said his committee was ready to help in any way with the project and added that perhaps right-of-way can be purchased at a cheaper price.

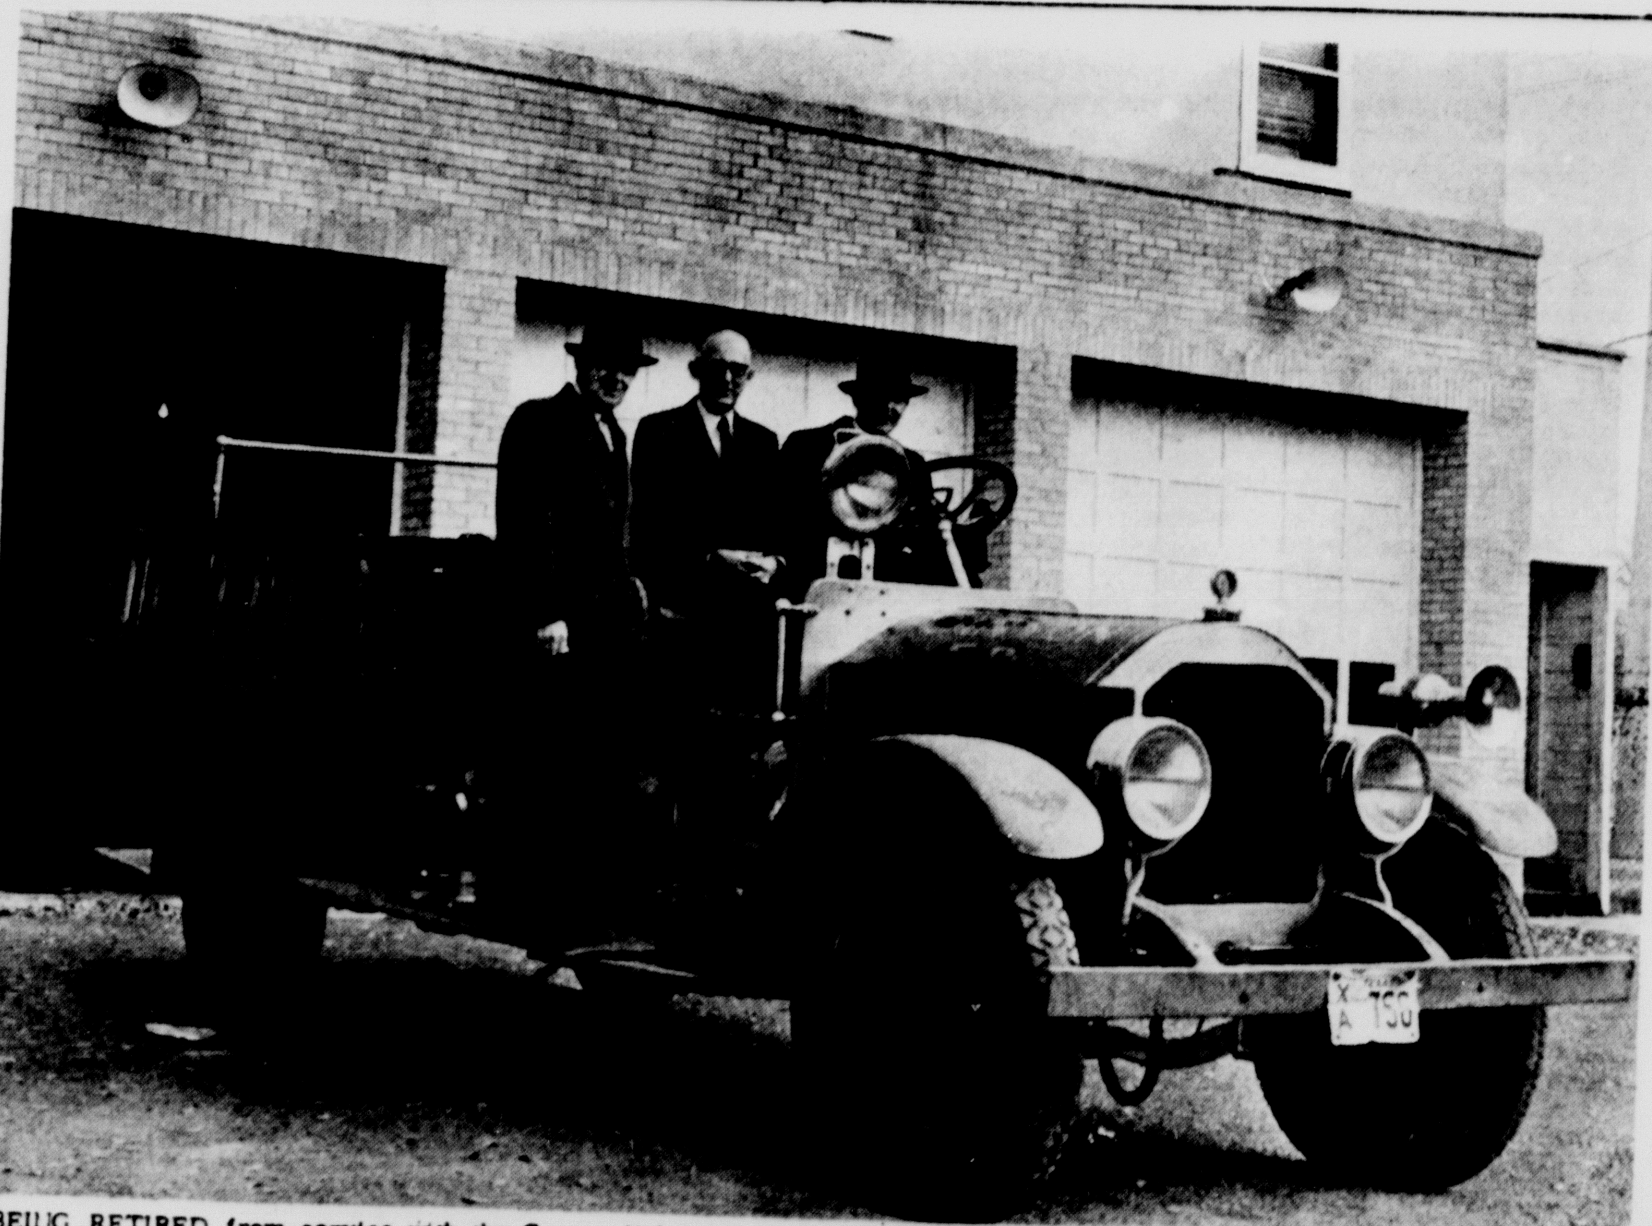

Commissioners said it might be possible to go ahead with construction if the land is cheap enough. They told the two men to investigate the cost of right-of-way and they would consider it at a later date.

In other business commissioners voted to buy a 1961

Over 800 pounds of fish were brought back, according to M. B. "Farmer" Brown. He said the best catches were flounder up to six pounds. The rest were red fish, trout and sheep's head. Making the trip were: Brown and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bounds, Mr. and Mrs.

Skeet Fulton, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Ruthart, Mr. and Mrs. Crawford Ruthart, Mr. and Mrs. Harlie Burrus and Mr. and Mrs. Curly Myers.

Photograph of part of the catch is shown in the other section of this issue of the Canyon News. Pictured with the fish are Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Bounds.

Concerning Dreamland Cemetery

As president of Dreamland Cemetery Association, I am addressing the following letter to the people of Canyon and other interested parties:

No. 1: The purpose of the organization is to make the cemetery a worthy and attractive resting place for our beloved dead and to give it and endowment that will guarantee adequate permanent care. To the discredit of our community we have neglected these objectives entirely too long.

No. 2: To accomplish these purposes we must have a great deal more money. In order to obtain it, the Association has done the following: (a) obtained a charter from the State of Texas for a non-profit cemetery association and organized a governing body called the Board of Directors. Every owner of a grave space under the chartered body has a vote in the selection of the Board of Directors. Elections to this Board are held annually in August. The current Board is composed of the following citizens: Mrs. R. A. Bellah, Sr., Tom Black, Levi Cole, J. A. Hill, president; Gwen McFarland, Mrs. R. A. Neblett, Mrs. J. O. Parker, Bill Sternberg, secretary; Clarence Thompson, Mrs. C. W. Warwick, Roy Whittenburg.

(b) The Association has raised the price of grave spaces in line with prices in other publicly-controlled cemeteries in neighboring towns of our class. Forty per cent of all space sales goes into the permanent care fund, and sixty per cent into current up-keep and improvement. LaGrone Funeral Chapel has taken the responsibility of management, improvement, supervision of labor, and maintenance of records.

(c) The First National Bank in Amarillo is depository for the endowment, or permanent care funds, and investments of that fund are made by the bank's Investment Division upon approval by the cemetery Board of Directors. About $20,000 is now in that fund, most of which is invested at an average rate of interest. The income from this fund goes into current up-keep and improvements.

(d) In view of the strength and soundness of current financial conditions, the Directors feel that a substantial increase in our permanent care funds should be made in this fiscal year, September, 1960, to September, 1961. It is hoped that this fund can be raised to a minimum of $30,000 in this 12 month period. To that end we have requested LaGrone Funeral Home to solicit a membership fee from all who own grave spaces in the cemetery. Furthermore, each member of the Board of Directors has agreed to make as many personal solicitations as possible and they will be working free of charge as time permits in the next few months. Payments may be made on the installment plan for as little as $5 per month.

(e) The Board of Directors feel that some people may wish to make outright gifts to the Association, as has already been done in a few instances and as has been done to a notable degree in some of our neighboring towns. This can be done through cash donations or through wills. Such gifts are creditable on income taxes.

No. 3: The Board appreciates the public's favorable reception of its program and the many compliments it has received on what has already been done. If all who own spaces in the cemetery will join our organization by paying the established space fee, Canyon and Randall County will soon have one of the most beautiful burial grounds in northwest Texas, and it would reflect great credit upon the whole community. Everyone who is interested in our program, whether owning cemetery space or not, is cordially invited to help with this project.

J. A. Hill, President
Dreamland Cemetery Association

SPORTS TALK

by Witt

Fishing and fishing fever are picking up. All over the Panhandle folks are getting ready to leave for the coast and for deep South Texas to fish. Fish have really started biting along the coast from Corpus Christi to Brownsville.

Fresh water fishing at Falcon Lake is still slow and the catch is running small; from 1 pound to 2 and one-half pounds average.

Rain and cloudy weather slowed things up all over Texas last week. All the fishermen who went south last week caught plenty of fish in spite of the weather. Largest fish reported was a 40 pound drum by Curley Myers of Canyon. Smallest bass I saw taken on a plug was a 4 inch black bass landed by Buddy Taylor of Canyon.

Channel catfish could be taken by the hundreds at Falcon Lake. They ranged from 12 to 17 inches long and would bite worms, liver and shrimp.

Hunting reports are coming in thick and fast. Deer hunting is excellent down state. Deer are in the best shape in years as grass has been good all summer and fall. I saw bucks hanging in a locker in Laredo which were as large as Colorado deer.

Duck hunting is picking up every day now. Our weather is getting cold enough to bring more ducks in every few days. Most of the hunters are reporting killing about 2 or 3 ducks each trip, most of these being small ducks.

So far the geese haven't arrived in large numbers. We have between 2 and 3 thousand geese on Buffalo Lake now.

Richardsons Have Girl

Mr. and Mrs. James W. Richardson of Big Spring are parents of a daughter, born November 21 in Big Spring.

Mrs. Richardson is the former Ellen Root, and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Root of Canyon. Mrs. Root planned to leave today for Big Spring, where she will spend 10 days or two weeks with her daughter.

The Richardsons have two other children, Steve, 10 and David, 7.

The infant weighed 7 pounds, 9 ounces at birth and was named Nancy Carol.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Richardson of Blythe, California, are paternal grandparents.

One thing we don't want sneaking up on us is the quail season. Remember, it opens December 1.

Busy Travel Slate Keeps Retired Couple Moving

"Since I retired I haven't had any trouble finding something to do. I've been kept busy every minute."

That statement sums up the retirement of Frank Phillips, who was head of the West Texas State College agriculture department until 1953.

When he retired, Phillips planned to spend time in the library reading. Instead, the veteran traveler—at that time he had been in every state and in ten foreign countries—began traveling.

"The more you travel, the more you want to travel and the more you enjoy it," he explains.

Both Phillips and his wife, Olga, enjoy trips made without specific plans. If they arrive at a place intending to stay only a day or two and find they really enjoy the site, they may rent an apartment and stay for five or six weeks. The apartment then becomes general headquarters for the Phillipses, while they make sidetrips to surrounding points of interest.

Without an itinerary, the Phillipses have been able to take advantage of many interesting events that came up unexpectedly.

They were returning from Winnipeg, Canada, the only town of any size they had not visited before when they noticed a lot of cars going to the same place. Upon making inquiries, they learned a play was being presented in an arroyo, and they decided to go.

"It was remarkable. They branded on calf on the other side of the arroyo, and you could hear the hair singe. The acoustics were remarkable."

Another time Mr. and Mrs. Phillips asked residents of a town about possible points of interest. One citizen finally suggested they see a memorial to the Four Chaplains who perished aboard a ship during World War II. A Roman Catholic priest in the town had constructed the monument, using his life savings.

While the Phillipses were reading the memorial, the priest saw them and asked them in for coffee. A native of France, he explained that he had preached religious tolerance for years and that the memorial was the high point in his life's work.

"If you just go, you'll enjoy yourself," Phillips advises.

Three summers ago, the Phillipses made their headquarters in Anchorage, Alaska, and made field trips as far north as the gold fields at Fairbanks and the salmon hatcheries in southwest Alaska.

"We were there during the celebration when Alaska was made a state," Phillips said. "They brought a cow moose down from the mountains. You know a cow moose is considerably larger than a cow. They put a sign up: 'This is no bull. Alaska is bigger than Texas.'"

While the Phillipses were in Alaska, they represented the Northwest Texas Methodist Conference at the dedication of the Methodist University of Alaska, located three miles outside Anchorage.

"Bishop Frank Smith told of standing three miles from Dallas in a cotton field 40 years ago at the dedication of Southern Methodist University. He predicted that Anchorage would build out around the Alaskan college in the same way."

Mr. and Mrs. Phillips plan to tour South America next year.

They plan to leave New Orleans by freighter for a slow ocean voyage for Panama City in the Canal Zone, where they will visit P. C. Bennett, former county agent in Potter and Swisher County.

"We have no idea where we'll go from there. That depends on conditions," he says.

The Phillipses decided on the tour to South America for another reason besides wanting to see Bennett.

"I am allergic to cold weather; it affects my skin," Phillips says. Mrs. Phillips adds, "It will be summer in South America."

In their travels to foreign countries, the Phillipses have found that travel in Canada is safe, but one should travel with caution in Mexico.

"Many people complain of getting sick in Mexico, but I've never had anyone in my family or on one of my conducted tours to be sick," he said, and added that he had developed five rules, which he always observes when traveling in Mexico.

These rules are: Don't eat anything that has not been boiled or cooked, except in the most modern restaurants and hotels in big cities. Don't drink any water, unless it is bottled.

Don't drink any milk, regardless of assurances of people attempting to sell it. Always peel fresh fruit and throw away the peeling.

Never take a taxi without first writing down its number. Drivers own and operate their own vehicles, as compared with American companies. Drivers sometimes attempt to swindle American tourists, but do not attempt it if the tourist has a number to report to the police.

"I like Mexico; Mrs. Phillips doesn't like it as well. I like it because the room rents about one-half what it is here and bananas and oranges sell for about 10 cents a dozen."

"I like Mexico; Mrs. Phillips doesn't like it as well. I like it because the room rent is about one-half what it is here and bananas and oranges sell for about 10 cents a dozen."

In traveling in Latin American countries, Mr. and Mrs. Phillips carry letters from the sheriff, the chief of police, and the Progressive Farmer.

"If you're arrested in Latin America, there's no such thing as bail. A letter from the sheriff and the chief of police may keep you out of jail," explains Phillips. He once wrote articles for the Progressive Farmer, and carries a letter from the magazine to show as a press pass, because Latin Americans fear American writers.

If they play to be away for several months, the Phillipses get some of their friends to take care of their mail. If they are going to be gone for a short time, they have local post office employees forward first class mail and put second class mail in a pasteboard box, awaiting their return.

"I don't know how they do it, but the post office boys always get the first class mail to us, regardless of how erratic our schedule is," Phillips says.

MAN, THESE DRYERS ARE THE GREATEST! BUT WHY ARE THEY ALWAYS GAS?

ANY FAMILY MAN CAN ANSWER THAT ONE! GAS IS FASTER, SAFER AND COSTS LESS. WHAT ELSE?

there are good reasons why 97% OF ALL COMMERCIAL LAUNDRIES USE GAS CLOTHES DRYERS

Gas goes to work instantly, with no warm-up wait. Gas is faster by far, reducing drying time to a minimum. Its low heat, high air-flow principle makes short work of even difficult-to-dry shag rugs and bedspreads, yet is ever-so-gentle on even the daintiest synthetics. And as for economy, a Gas Dryer operates for about 1/9th the cost of the other kind. When Gas drying rates first with those who know, wouldn't it be best for your family, too?

Oldest Resident Recalls Early Experiences

By Carol Haseloff
WT Jr. "sm Student

Mrs. Sallie Maxwell Bosley, 95, is the oldest living resident of Canyon. Born July 30, 1865, she is also believed to be the oldest resident of the county. Mrs. Bosley and her husband, the late Clarence Emory Bosley moved to Canyon in 1928, where Mr. Bosley started a wrecking yard.

"Grandmother has always had a family with her," says Mrs. Ruby Lloyd, who, with her father, Max Bosley, Sr., and her three children, live with Mrs. Bosley at 1104 Second Ave. "My mother died when I was about a year and a half old, and grandmother raised me."

Mrs. Bosley has mentioned many times that her mother and father came from Tennessee to Sherman in a covered wagon, and helped to settle Grayson County, in 1849. Her father, B. W. Bradley, was chosen as the first postmaster for the settlement. In 1850, Bradley was elected Deputy District and County Clerk, which he held until 1854, when he was elected District County Clerk. He remained in this office until 1866.

In 1871 the district and county clerks offices were combined, and a man elected who had no experience in the district work. Mr. Bradley was appointed his deputy and served four years, which made a total of 20 years service in the county court house in Sherman.

Mrs. Bosley's childhood was spent mostly in Grayson County. She married Mr. Bosley in 1882, and in their 51 years of marriage, they had nine children—five boys and four girls. The Bosleys came to the plains in 1927 in a 1921 Model T Ford, after raising their family around Gainesville.

They settled in Canyon in 1928 in the same house in which Mrs. Bosley now lives. The Bosleys moved the house, then 50 years old, from its location north of the Old Canyon Home to 1104 Second Ave.

"Mother dearly loved children and was always quick to defend them," recalls Cecil Bosley, 1705 Eighth Avenue. "She has 24 grandchildren, 40 great grand children, and 12 great great-grand children, with her descendants ranging in age from 76 years old to one year old."

Mrs. Bosley's house is near the railroad tracks and many hobos have knocked on her door for handouts. "No one has ever come to Mother and gone away hungry," Cecil Bosley laughs, "even when they turned down the chance to work for their meal."

Some of Mrs. Bosley's early memories of Canyon are that the Olympic Theatre and the Post Office were not here. Much of the land around the square was vacant at that time. Canyon's population was about 2500 when Mrs. Bosley came here.

Some of the credit for Mrs. Bosley's longevity may go to family heritage, as her mother lived to be 95, and her sisters lived to be 92.

Happy PTA To Sponsor School Fund

Happy Parent-Teacher Association will sponsor a community Christmas card again this year, with proceeds going into a fund for construction of a tennis court on the Happy School campus.

Approximately $700 is now deposited in the tennis court fund, and most of it was raised in the Christmas card project last year.

Mrs. Royce Vernon, PTA president, has urged those who want a new tennis court installed to donate money ordinarily spent on cards and postage. Donations may be deposited in the First State Bank in Happy in the PTA Tennis Court Fund.

Names of all contributors will be acknowledged by publication in a community Christmas card.

Farm accidents never take a holiday. The power used in modern agriculture in the form of fuels, motors, machines, belts, electricity, and chemicals is almost beyond belief. This power adds to our efficiency. It is sometimes destructive power when out of control. Carelessness and power do not mix. Farm accidents are increasing rapidly. Lost time accidents, permanent disability, and even fatal accidents are mostly due to someone's carelessness.

Between now and December 31, Randall County Farmers and Ranchers should do some good solid business management in regards to income tax. Crops have been good. Some farmers will pay excessive taxes because of faulty records. A good day or two spent soon on farm records will tell if you should do a little tax management before the year ends. Some of next year's supplies could be purchased. Machinery could be repaired. Machinery could be purchased. Some crops could be carried over for sale next year. These are simply good management practices if you know the business side of agriculture.

Plans are in the making for the Randall County Junior Livestock show to be held in Canyon in January. The show will be one week prior to the Amarillo Fat Stock show. Officers, directors, committees and workers are ready to start work. This association has another ambition to make future shows even better. More details on their new plan will be announced in a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Lee, Cindy and Billy, will visit in Throckmorton during the Thanksgiving holiday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Maxey.

About 600 persons viewed new Christmas ideas and flower arrangements Sunday at open house of HR's Greenhouse.

Persons attending the annual affair of the business registered for six gifts, and will continue to register for a hi-fi record player. A drawing for the winner will be held December 20.

Visitors to the greenhouse viewed Christmas arrangements and ideas, and a pink flocked Christmas tree, decorated with deep pink crystal balls and clusters of purple grapes.

Punch and cookies were served from a table laid with a brown and gold metallic mesh cloth. Mahogany-colored carnations accented with gold Christmas balls and variegated English ivy formed the centerpiece on the table.

SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

Did those washes in your field get larger and deeper this year?

Maybe it is to the point that it is not only costing you in having land idle but there is a growing inconvenience in working the field. Possibly a diversion terrace would help stop the gully by controlling the water.

Diversion terraces are usually built near the top of the steeper slopes and in long gentle slopes. They divert water, slow it down and get it off the field without erosion taking place.

Diversion terraces are built on a grade so they will take the water off at a non-erosive rate. The water should be turned out on a good stand of native grass or into a seeded waterway. If the outlet is to be into a waterway the waterway should be built and seeded before the diversion is built in case you get a heavy rain soon after the diversion is built the waterway will not wash out.

Fall and winter is generally a good time of the year to do work of this type; the crops are off and most of the time the weather is dry enough for field work.

If you believe you could use a diversion terrace contact the SCS technicians or the ASC office at Canyon.

Annual Report Randall-Potter Soil Conservation District No. 147

The Board of Supervisors feels that relations with the Extension Service representatives in both Randall County and Potter County are most excellent and cooperative. The Randall County agent has attended several meetings of the board during the year, and has assisted each year in the October election for a supervisor. He has given training in grass judging and evaluating soils to several teams of club boys. Technicians from the SCS assisted in setting up these contests and scoring the results. Equipment owned by the district has been used sometimes, as a result of information from the Extension Service, and conservation work that would require exact engineering has been referred to technicians of the SCS and district supervisors.

The agent has advised farmers on conservation practices such as stubble mulch, cover and sod crops, legumes, proper grazing, wind and water erosion control, and noxious weed control.

The Potter County agent and assistant agent have attended some meetings of the board of supervisors. The Potter County agents state that soil conservation work is on the increase in that county the past year, with several farmers carrying out stubble mulch practices on around five thousand acres, and that this seems to be one of the most desirable practices at the present time.

The Potter County agent and assistant agent took part in six regular meetings throughout the year with Soil Conservation Service discussing local needs and conditions.

The agents for both Randall County and Potter County took part in a special planned tour for Assistant Secretary of Agriculture Marvin McClain of Washington D. C. when he visited the area last December. Four bus loads about 120 farmers and area conservation leaders were in attendance for this event. These men viewed mostly soil bank conservation reserve acreage in the three counties of Randall, Potter, and Moore. Supervisors from this district were invited to make this tour. Supervisor C. V. Conatser's farm was inspected; also cooperator M. B. Brown's was inspected. Mid-morning coffee was served to the group in the large quonset barn on the Brown farm.

The assistant county agent conducted four grass demonstrations before members of five Potter County 4-H Clubs. Soil Conservation District No. 147 owns and offers for rent to farmers thirteen pieces of conservation equipment consisting of

2 10-foot grass drills
1 12-foot land leveler
1 13-foot fertilizer applicator
1 Insect Sprayer
1 2-yard wheel scraper
1 Inter-row legume seeder
1 5-foot shredder-mower
2 15-foot shredder-mowers
1 13' 8" stubble mulch sweep plow
1 9-foot tumbler roatry subsoiler

This equipment serves several worthwhile purposes. It promotes conservation of soil and water in the immediate area by providing at nominal cost a means whereby these conservation practices may be effected; it is another means for making contacts with the farming population, and securing more cooperators; it gives the boys in Vocational Agriculture first hand experience in maintaining and operating certain types of soil conservation equipment; it gives these boys a source of income to help finance their activities.

Hicks Boy Breaks Arm In 4 Places

Allen Wayne Hicks is still hospitalized in Neblett Hospital this week after his arm was broken November 15.

Allen Wayne is 11 years old and is in the fourth grade in Canyon Elementary School. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Hicks of Route 1, Canyon.

The boy's left arm was broken in four places when he became entangled in a power takeoff shaft of a tractor while helping his father unload grain.

Allen's father said Tuesday that they hoped to take him home Thursday or Friday.

Brent May Suffers Burns

Eighteen-month-old Brent May suffered third degree burns in a home accident last week.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill May, he pulled a jar of hot grease over, burning himself about the head and face.

He is reported to be "doing fine" at home.

TEL Class Holds Session

T. E. L. Class of the First Baptist Church met Monday afternoon for a business meeting, program, and social hour in the home of Mrs. Nora Murphy, with Mrs. D. P. Clark, class president presiding.

Thanksgiving theme was carried out in the program with Mrs. H. Cook giving the devotional, "The Story of Thanksgiving" was told by Mrs. H. C. Gentry. Each one present gave a Thanksgiving thought.

Those attending were Mrs. Gentry, Mrs. S. L. Terry, Mrs. H. Cook, Mrs. Roy Gilbreath, Mrs. Lottie Suggs, Mrs. D. P. Clark, the hostess, and a guest Mrs. J. M. Farr.

The next meeting will be held December 19, which will be a Christmas party in the home of Mrs. D. P. Clark.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Lipscomb from Lincoln, Nebraska, are visiting in the home of their son and his family, Mr. and Mrs. David M. Lipscomb for the Thanksgiving holidays. Roy Lipscomb was reared in the Stratford area.

Food Donations Heavy

Donations of surplus food by the USDA at home and overseas totaled almost 2.8 billion pounds in the year ending June 30, 1960. This total is down slightly from the all-time record of 3.0 billion set the previous year.

The foods donated are acquired by USDA in its price-support and surplus-removal operations, and are made available to schools and charitable institutions in this country and to needy persons both here and abroad through the Agricultural Marketing Service's Direct Distribution Program. Eligible recipients in the U. S. receive commodities through designated State and local government agencies. Foreign distribution in over 90 countries was handled by about 20 U. S. voluntary agencies in the fiscal year just ended.

Distribution to domestic recipients in the past year showed a 17.5 percent decrease from the previous year. This decrease was due largely to the improved dairy situation, coupled with a decline in the number of eligible needy persons in family units.

Schools, under priority rules established by Congress, continued to receive available stocks of butter and cheese, and registered a gain of about 6 percent in volume of surplus commodities used. Supplementary foods purchased by the USDA exclusively for schools taking part in the National School Lunch Program were not included in these totals.

The largest child ever born, according to medical records, was the 23 3/4 pound, 30 inch long son born in 1897 to seven-foot-five tall Nova Scotia mother, Anna Bates.

Extra income can result from well kept farm and ranch business records. C. H. Bates, extension farm management specialist, points out that good records can often help farmers and ranchmen make the right management decisions. Too, he adds, records are very important come tax paying time. Local county extension agents can supply information and publications on record keeping.

Harve Groom has been visiting in the O. A. Smith home.

Rev. and Mrs. Charles Hastings and Debbie will spend Thanksgiving Day with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Hastings, in Dumas. Mrs. Hastings and Debbie will visit in Dumas while Charles attends several church meetings next week.

Rev. Charles Hastings will leave Monday to attend two meetings in Nashville, Tennessee.

Hastings is director of the Methodist Student Center on the West Texas State College campus.

Meetings will be held by the Association of College and University Ministers, and the Association of Wesley Foundations, and will conclude Saturday.

Emphasis of the meetings will be placed on the church in an academic setting. Principal speakers will include Bishop James K. Mathews of the Boston area, James M. Gustafson of Yale Divinity School, and Bishop Otto Nall of Minneapolis, Minnesota.

Outgoing officers of the association are Duane Howard, president; R. B. Gist, Jr., vice-president; and Bruce Winn, secretary.

Directors whose terms expire this year are Glenn Dowlen, J. L. Markham, C. V. Conatser, T. A. Black, Charles Donnell, John Taylor, L. T. Campbell, Clairborn Crain, and George Louder.

Membership in the association totals 250 persons.

Hall and his wife Thelma lived in Schaeffer's Trailer Park at the time of his death. They are from Phoenix, Arizona.

He was born February 16, 1903, in Bonham, Texas. The Halls attended a Canyon Church of Christ.

LaGrone Funeral Home of Canyon made arrangements.

Survivors include the wife, two daughters, Raynella Parker and Mark Johnson, both of Phoenix; two sons, Darrell of Phoenix, and Gale of Scranton, North Dakota; and seven grandchildren.

Rev. and Mrs. Charles Hastings and Debbie will spend Thanksgiving Day with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Hastings, in Dumas. Mrs. Hastings and Debbie will visit in Dumas while Charles attends several church meetings next week.

Coach Sees Buffaloes As Big Question Mark

With the opening game just a few days away, Coach Metz LaFollette still regards the West Texas State basketball team as one big question mark. "We won't be able to gauge the strength of this club until we see them in action," voiced Coach LaFollette, who starts his second year at the Buffalo helm. He will have that opportunity Saturday, Dec. 3, when the Buffs open at home with Midwestern University.

Variety Ring Plans Party

Plans for a Christmas party were completed when the Variety Ring met recently with Mrs. Levi Cole.

Mrs. Leonard Winters conducted the business session, during which plans were discussed for the party, to be held in the home of Mrs. J. P. Hammons December 13. Mrs. George Barker will be co-hostess.

Mrs. R. D. Lowry was a club guest. Members who answered roll call with "my plans for Thanksgiving" were Mrs. Earl Burtz, Mrs. Mae Johnson, Mrs. P. L. Pitt, Mrs. Lang Hunter, Mrs. Fred Marshall, Mrs. J. P. Hammons, Mrs. K. E. Hines, Mrs. Estell Rice, Mrs. George Cox, Mrs. Rae Walters, Mrs. Leonard Winters, Mrs. George Barker, and Mrs. Jeannette Robbins.

Mrs. Cole served hot punch, sandwiches and cookies.

height as most teams we meet, height as most teams we meet," added Coach LaFollette, "and therefore we probably will be hurting on the boards this season."

The former West Texas State cager and footballer, who guided West Texas to a 11-9 record last year and a second place tie in the Border Conference scramble, has been experimenting with his big men to find the best combination. About the only Buffs assured of starting roles at this time are two "little men," guards Keith Blair (6-0) and Sonny Blankenship (5-10). Blair is a senior who has started the past two seasons and Blankenship is a promising sophomore who does everything well.

Giving the most competition for the other three spots are Jim Conner, 6-8 1/2 junior who was slowed down earlier with a knee injury; Henry Hardaway, 6-3 1/2 junior who played a lot last year; Bob Grace, 6-6 soph who adds heft to the forward wall; Jim Curtissinger, 6-4 jump-shooter who averaged 15 points as a soph last year; and Steve Slagle, 6-3 1/2 sophomore who is a good steady hand.

Foster, Brasher Engagement Told

Engagement of Miss Sally Foster, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Foster, to Jimmy Brasher, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. V. Brasher, was revealed by a tea Sunday afternoon in the Foster home, 1201 Fifth Avenue.

Miss Foster and Mr. Brasher will exchange wedding vows at 7 p.m. December 27 in the First Presbyterian Church here.

Announcement of the names "Jimmy and Sally" and the date "December 27" was revealed by a hand-painted wedding plate, inscribed in silver, and nestled on a pyramid arrangement of pale and deep amethyst variegated carnations and orchid heather. Miniature white and silver wedding bells accented the arrangement and festooned the white satin-draped window area.

Silver 3-branched candelabra holding white tapers flanked the centerpiece. Silver coffee service and other silver appointments completed the setting.

The serving table was laid with a white cutwork Irish linen cloth with embroidered border.

Food served carried out the bride's selected colors of shades of amethyst. Snowballs and decorated mints were in two shades of amethyst, and salted nuts, tea and coffee were also served.

Presiding at the coffee service were Mrs. Mark Foster, Mrs. R. A. Neblett and Mrs. F. A. Pierce.

Registering the 225 guests that called between 3 and 6 p.m. were Miss Marcell Brewer of Amarillo, aunt of the bride-to-be, and Mrs. J. A. Brewer, grandmother of the bride-to-be.

Friends of the bride-to-be and her mother composed the house party. They were Mrs. J. D. Barker, Mrs. Clara Long, Mrs. Joe Gibson, Mrs. J. J. Walker, Mrs. K. E. Frieze, Mrs. Dan Sanders, Mrs. Clyde Warwick, Mrs. J. M. White, Mrs. E. J. Cundiff, Mrs. James Cornette, and Mrs. Walter Graham.

In the receiving line were Mrs. Foster, Miss Foster, and Mrs. Brasher. The bride-to-be was attired in a amethyst lace dress with a white cattailya orchid with a deep purple throat. Mrs. Foster and Mrs. Brasher were both attired in shades of the bride's chosen colors.

Point of interest in the den was an interesting arrangement of pictures of the bride-to-be from the age of three months until her recent engagement picture.

Dowlen Hosts Bridge Club

Pie and coffee were served by Mrs. Glenn Dowlen, hostess, when the 1925 Bridge Club met in the home of Mrs. Ray McReynolds.

Present were Mrs. R. C. Bussted, Mrs. Hatcher Brown, Mrs. Newton Crain, Mrs. T. V. Crounse, Mrs. J. M. Daugherty, Mrs. Joe Gibson, Mrs. Iverson Leake, Mrs. Ray McReynolds, Mrs. Hud Prichard, Mrs. Cecil Simms, Mrs. John A. Williams, and Mrs. Dowlen.

SOCIETY NOTES

Gort Rushmer, West Texas State College photographer, must be walking on air again. "Playbill," national magazine of Alpha Psi Omega, national honorary dramatics group, ran one of Gort's pictures of "Antigone" as a full page. "Antigone" was presented by WT dramatists last season.

Gort has had pictures published in other national magazines, including "Life."

With Thanksgiving holidays on us, the News staff wants to remind everyone to drive carefully on those trips. With subscribers so scarce, we'd hate to lose any.

The elections are over, but stories continue to pop up about candidates.

One of the best is about a teacher over at Borger who conducted a write-in campaign for a judgeship. He not only didn't get enough votes to win the office he was seeking; he didn't win any of the other eight offices for which confused voters wrote in his name.

Dwight High, student body president at WT, assisted with conducting the presidential election at Box 13. Mrs. O. L. Coleman, election judge, has been using a student of government from WT so they might gain practical political experience.

Jeanne in the State Line Tribune says: "Ever notice how fast it gets later, once you Buy Now?"

Mrs. Beatrice Newsom of Denton, a sister of R. R. Rigsby, left Friday after visiting here last week.

Six Persons Employed In Local Police Department

By Brad Wilson

WT Journalism Student "The greatest advancement in the police force is the two-way radio," says L. D. Caldwell, Canyon chief of police. "It can take the place of 20 men and you can reach any part of the country in a matter of minutes."

The greatest local asset, according to Caldwell, is sufficient man power. The force has jumped from a one-man operation in 1955 to its current six-man working unit. "We don't have any formal training program," informs Caldwell, "but we take new men around for about six weeks before they go out on their own. This way they learn how to operate and what to do."

Caldwell, who indirectly became a police officer because he wanted to be a fireman, says "the crime rate in Canyon is much lower than in most places our size. I don't know the reason for this," he said, "unless it's because we usually catch those who do something wrong."

A 16-year veteran in the law enforcement work, the 42-year-old Caldwell believes that the public expects four things from the police department. "They want us to be dependable, reliable, courteous and to have character," he stated. "In addition," added Caldwell, "I like for my men to be able to take care of themselves."

"Traffic is our major problem here in Canyon," informed Caldwell, "but we handle burglaries and other crimes, too. However, there aren't too many cases like that."

Caldwell went on to say that "the people in Canyon are very cooperative. We don't have much trouble with them when we make an arrest. In a place like Amarillo, it's different, because of the gangs."

Caldwell informed that the police department works along with the sheriff's department, "but they take the lead in felony cases," he said. "Of course we help out when we can and they assist us."

In 1944 at Pearl Harbor, Caldwell "was there when all those ships blew up. We were putting out fires and picking up bodies everywhere," he said. "I suppose that's when I first thought about being a fireman."

After the service Caldwell applied for a job at the Amarillo fire department, but was sent over to the police department because there was no opening at the time. He got a job at the police department until an opening came at the fire department. "I worked for a while at the fire department and then went back to police work." He has been police chief at Canyon for one and a half years.

"Not too much outstanding has happened to me in my work," drawled the mild-spoken local police boss, "but we have helped with tornadoes and things like that. I did help with an important murder case one time," he said.

OUTSMARTS HIMSELF

Usually when a man puts up a bluff he's trying to cover up the fact that he can't deliver the goods he promised.

cars are presently being used and another one will be added in the near future.

KEEPING UP WITH THE ARTS

Mary Caballero

Plans for the Fine Arts Festival sponsored each year by the music, speech and art departments of West Texas State have started off in a big way.

Dr. D. Kenneth Winebrenner, editor of the School Arts Magazine, will be the guest speaker for the Festival banquet. The banquet will be held on Friday, February 17. On Saturday, Dr. Winebrenner will hold a lecture in the Fine Arts Building auditorium and then on Sunday afternoon, February 19, there will be a panel group of our own area people with Dr. Winebrenner as moderator.

Dr. Winebrenner is the head of the art department of Buffalo State University, Buffalo, New York. He is an author, teacher and lecturer.

This may seem early to announce this very special event, but there will be publicity from time to time announcing other activities connected to the Festival. Plays, musical concerts, and other parts of the Festival will be announced later.

A large number of tickets have been sold, as many people from out side our city plan to attend. The tickets may be obtained for $3 per person for the banquet to hear Dr. Winebrenner speak.

Miss Isabel Robinson will be honored at a tea on December 11, Sunday afternoon from 2 to 5 in the Fine Arts Building. Miss Robinson will show a group of paintings in oil and watercolor. She has been preparing for this show for some time and will have many new pieces to exhibit. Her work is now on exhibition in the Women's Club Room in Midland, Texas.

For the music lovers, I wanted to pass on the word about the opera in Lubbock on Friday night. Mozart's "Don Giovanni" will be presented in the Lubbock Auditorium on Friday, November 25. Good tickets are still available and can be purchased in the Auditorium Lobby from 9 to 5. The opera will be presented in English by The Goldovsky Grand Opera Theater with a company of 50 people.

As Chairman for the 8th District Cultural Arts, I have made out a report to Mrs. Vernon Jackson, State Chairman of Cultural Arts, of the Texas Congress of Parents and Teachers. A three day convention was held in Austin, Texas on November 16, 17, and 18. One session of the convention was concerned with "Cultural Development of our Times." The purpose of the 51st Annual Convention was interest in the youth and children of our state. The delegates, numbering about 4,000 spent time with issues concerning education and laws to censor bad movies and "crime and violence programs on television."

When we serve as district members, it is our duty to keep the state chairman informed of the cultural activities available for our young people. I'm sure it was a very successful meeting and I will give news from the state chairman when she sends a report of their actions to me.

RECORD RAMBLINGS

Several of the best known names in the record business have second line labels. For instance RCA-Victor has Camden records; London has Richmond, etc. These are usually reissues of records a few years old, or records by second string artists. These records usually sell at around $1.98 to $2.98. At the price they are frequently a bargain. Some of the performances are great, particularly the classical. These records are in direct competition with various less expensive brands, often found in drug stores, supermarkets, etc.

Most of these records are not up to the high technical standards of the best RCA, Angel, London, etc. recordings; but the better ones are more than adequate in sound, as mentioned before may have superior performances. The chief difficulty is the need for more careful selection, for if you get a bad one it is really a lemon. The critics of the hi-fi magazines usually review the better issues of these records for your consideration. Frequently the places which sell these bargain records do not have adequate facilities for listening. In this case, it is "pay your money and take your chances." One way to get a little more protection is to buy at the regular record shops. They all have a rack of the less expensive records, and have facilities for playing.

A few days ago I picked some of these for background music in a public place. Camden has put out four or five of the Hugo Winterhalter records under the name of the Living Strings Orchestra. Winterhalter fans can get a nice deal on these. I enjoyed "Living Strings Play Music for Romance," CAS 637. "The Living Strings Play Music" for moonlight, or night, or something like that is pretty terrible. The tempo drags and the sound is bad.

Richmond has a series by the Frank Chacksfield Orchestra which is good. As a special deal they have packaged two together. The bonus is "The Million Sellers" which contains some rather poor old sound, but who can complain at the price. I bought "Ebb Tide," Richmond S 30078, which has a nice sound and many nice old songs such as "Ebb Tide," "Deep Purple," "Limelight,"

"Among my Souvenirs."

One of the better new companies is Somerset who have the Stereo-Fidelity trademark. They have produced the very popular 101 Strings Orchestra series which have been quite popular. They have recently produced a two record album which sells for the price of one, called "101 Years of Familiar Songs America Loves," played by the 101 Strings, 2RS. There are most of the old favorites from "Donkey Serenade," through "After the Ball was Over," to "Blue Danube." Be seeing you at the bargain counter.

ART ODDITY FOR THE WEEK..

Now with the happiness of Thanksgiving still lingering on our faces, the frown of what to buy as gifts for Christmas begins to filter through our brain. I have been browsing through many magazines and this really starts one off on the wish to find something to make everyone happy in this special day of gift exchange.....

I found this very stimulating advertisement.... "Gifts Unlimited"

"There seems to be a growing demand in the market place for the unusual, even bizarre gift ideas, judging by the number of fascinating ads we have been observing. There are offerings of "shrunk pygmy head ash trays," imported Haitian Voodoo drums, monogrammed tooth picks "for those who have everything," and an oddment of other equally off-beat gifts for the ideaworthy shopper. We know a chap who received a Philippine bolo knife that is just dandy for cutting jungle brush.....if he ever visits a jungle!

The problem of most of these splendid ideas is their relatively limited use. The ideal "unusual" gift should combine cautiousness with daring. It should have an aura of dashing practicality. Certainly, above all else, it should be useful. With these requirements in mind, we have come up with what may prove to be the gift idea of the year!"

Guess what it was.....? Wallpaper!!!!!!!!!!!!

Thanksgiving and Christmas are almost here, and turkey buying fever is beginning to rise. F. Z. Beanblossom, extension poultry marketing specialist, suggests to shoppers that they look for a quality bird. Birds which are marked with the USDA inspection tag for wholesomeness and grade label can be purchased with confidence. A bird with a broad breast, deep body and of medium length with thick drumsticks and bulging thighs will give the highest ratio of meat to bone and the most edible meat for each dollar spent. Finish is also an important factor to consider.

Student Council Installed; Teacher, Citizen Named

Installation of student council representatives and a Future Teachers of America program were high points of an American Education Week assembly in Canyon High School November 10.

As a part of the FTA program, Mrs. Charles Graham was named representative teacher, and A. C. Haley Jr. was presented as representative citizen.

Selected annually by secret ballot of the FTA chapter, the representative teacher is not eligible for selection again for three years.

Mrs. Graham joins Mrs. A. K. Knott and Mrs. Lee Foster as representative teachers.

Other representative citizens, selected by the executive FTA council, are Truett Hull and Bob Wear. Haley is currently serving as president of the school board.

Representative citizen is selected from persons who are not teachers who have shown an outstanding interest in the schools.

Both Mrs. Graham and Haley were presented flowers by Beverly Richard, FTA president and mistress of ceremonies for the assembly.

Virginia Crounse and Bill Callarman gave talks on "Fullback or Fullback for the Teaching Profession." These were the same speeches given at district FTA convention, where Miss Crounse won second place in the Miss FTA contest and Callarman took third in the Mister FTA contest.

Virginia compared a teacher to a fullback on a football team, with the FTA as spring training for teachers.

Bill also compared a teacher to a fullback, which he called the strength of a football team. He called attention to a portion of the FTA pledge that called for keeping the individual's body strong, as an athlete does.

Lawrence Roberts, counselor, spoke on "Strangest Secret in the World," in which he stressed the importance of planning the individual's life.

Miss Richard discussed the daily topics of American Education Week.

Ray C. Wells, student council advisor, presented class representatives to Joe A. Gibson, superintendent. Acting as installing officer, Gibson administered the oath of office to Phillip Waters, president of the student body, and Mike Moore, vice-president.

Waters then administered the oath to the 16 class representatives.

Bufs Close Season With Wichita U.

West Texas State will close the door on a tough football season Thursday afternoon in a Thanksgiving Day bout with University of Wichita in Kansas.

It will be a 2 p.m. kickoff. Coach Joe Kerbel's forces, facing the toughest schedule in school history, will go into the game with a 3-6 record. While it is a losing mark, it offers encouragement in the Buffalo camp where new coach Kerbel tries to rebuild after two straight 1-9 records. The six losses include some close decisions that could have gone either way.

The Buffaloes figure to have little chance at improving on the mark in the finale. Wichita enjoying a 6-2 season and the Missouri Valley Conference title, has lost only to Denver University and New Mexico State.

Coached by a former Army end Hank Foldberg, the Shockers appear on the West Texas schedule for the first time since 1946. In their only meeting to date, the Buffaloes hold a 7-6 decision.

After the 35-15 loss to New Mexico State last week, a score that does not include the closeness of the game for 52 minutes, the Buffs were given Monday and Tuesday off. Coach Kerbel had them back on the field Wednesday getting ready for the Shockers.

The Buffs will be at top

INJUSTICE

Junior High Band Trains Youth for Later Years

By Judy Hatley

WT Journalism Student
Down through the ages music has played an important part in the culture of our country and Herman Demus of 2511 9th Avenue, Canyon Junior High band director, is helping to further this idea with his unceasing devotion to his work.

Demus has been band director in Canyon since 1948 when he came here from White Deer. He got his Bachelors Degree and Masters Degree from West Texas State College. He did other work at Northern Illinois State Teachers College, Vandercook College in Chicago, and the University of Southern California.

He became interested in becoming a band director while he was a student in high school. He said, "If anyone teacher ever influenced me in choosing to be a band director, it was my band director then, who now teaches in Tulsa."

Demus has eighty-five students in his junior high band, all 7th and 8th graders. It is the largest group he has ever had. He starts the students in the 5th and 6th grade and they graduate into the junior high band. This prepares them for the high school band later on. This year he has forty 5th graders and thirty-six 6th graders.

Demus says there is a small percentage that quit after graduation from the junior high band, because some feel that band might interfere with sports and other school activities when they get into high school.

He teaches around 215 students a day. Only a handful take private lessons, so he teaches a large number of students to play which keeps him very busy. Like most bands, his largest section in the band is the clarinets.

His junior high band participated in Homecoming this year. They plan to give a Christmas program with the 5th and 6th grade band. In February they will give a concert with the high school band. In the latter part of April they will participate in the Inter-scholastic League. The plan to enter solos and some like instrument groups. They haven't set them up yet. The band does very little marching during the year. Most of the marching is done by the high school band.

With the heavy schedule Demus still finds time to work in his yard as sort of a hobby. He relaxes at the end of the day by watching television and reading. He is married and has two sons. Alan, in the sixth grade plays the violin and piano, and Mike who is five years old. Demus hopes Alan will be in band next year. He said,

"The violin will give him a good background for band and later on maybe orchestra."

He added, "I believe if we don't appreciate music we miss a great entertainment. The same is true of any of the fine arts."
